

ELICITING EXCELLENCE

"Bringing Out the Best in People"™

Speaking Topics

- ★ How to Be a More Effective Leader
- ★ Churning Out Without Burning Out
- ★ How to Achieve an Engaged Workforce

How Your Audience Will React:

"...our members have commented on how useful the information was and on how motivating your talk was. We'd certainly be interested in having you come back one day soon for another talk!"

Suzanne Davis, Program Chair, South Jeffco Rotary

"... a wonderfully well-informed and entertaining guest speaker. ... We had our largest turnout for Mr. Beck's presentation than we have had in seven years. ... Our only regret is that we did not plan a longer meeting with Michael."

Dana Moss, Executive Director, Yuma County Chamber of Commerce

"Tremendously valuable – I made plans as you spoke!"

Sharon Spenrath, American Cattlewomen's Association

Michael Beck is an executive coach and strategist who helps leaders improve their effectiveness and organizations accelerate success.

His credentials include an MBA in Finance from the Wharton School of Business along with degrees in Engineering from the University of Pennsylvania. He has held a variety of executive positions and worked several years overseas as a Business Advisor to a member of the Royal Family of Saudi Arabia.

He has had an interest in performance improvement for most of his life. Michael has earned a black belt in self-defense, ranked 118th in the world in a rowing competition, climbed several "Fourteener's", and is the author of the highly rated leadership book, Eliciting Excellence.

Michael Beck
Executive Coach &
Strategist